

*then some of those with us went to the tomb
and found things just as the women had described,
but him they did not see.”*

*And he said to them, “Oh, how foolish you are!
How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke!
Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?”*

*Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, Jesus interpreted to them what referred to him
in all the Scriptures.*

*As they approached the village to which they were going,
Jesus gave the impression that he was going on farther.*

*But they urged him, “Stay with us,
for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over.”*

So he went in to stay with them.

*And it happened that, while he was with them at a table,
he took bread, said the blessing,
broke it, and gave it to them.*

*With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him,
but he vanished from their sight.*

They said to each other,

*“Were not our hearts burning within us
while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?”*

*So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem
where they found gathered together*

the Eleven and those with them, who were saying,

“the Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!”

Then the two recounted

what had taken place on the way

and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.
